

Organic ImmunoBerry™ Liquid

Elderberry, astragalus, and mushroom extracts for immune function support*

IMMUNE HEALTH*

Say hello to Organic ImmunoBerry™ Liquid, the perfect solution for year-round immune balance support.* This delicious elderberry liquid is ideal for both children and adults in times of need to support a balanced and healthy immune system.*

Our immune system is an extraordinary, complex system to defend and protect the health of our bodies on a day-to-day basis. Nutrients from certain foods and herbal extracts, such as elderberries, wild cherries, mushrooms, and astragalus, have been shown to support a balanced and well-functioning immune system.* Organic ImmunoBerry™ Liquid may be ideal if you are feeling “run down” or looking to promote and maintain a strong immune system.*

This formula combines organic herbal extracts from elderberry, astragalus, and wild cherry, along with organic shiitake and maitake mushroom extracts and soluble dietary fiber to promote immune system function.* It is sweetened with organic glycerine and is delivered in a liquid format to help those who have trouble swallowing pills.*
